

Jane Deuber was a guest speaker at our 2010 Pure Romance National Training. She spoke to our Pure Romance Consultants in the direct sales industry, at the intermediate level. Her lecture topic was “Rev-up Your Recruiting for Rapid Team Growth” and the goal was to educate on how to prospect and recruit in the direct sales industry. Her message was right on target with what our Consultants needed to hear and learn with where they are in their business. Here is what just some of our Pure Romance Consultants had to say:
